The Palace

Dancing is perhaps the oldest amusement in the world, yet it never seems to grow old. It changes in form as time goes on, being sometimes sublime and sometimes ridiculous, but it is always popular.

The desire to dance is almost an instinct. Dancing is the interpretation, in motion, of the music played. Each dancer "Acts" the music being played as he understands it, therefore good music is the first requisite of good dancing.

The best dance music in Northern Utah is played at the Palace by the Palace Orchestra under the leadership of G.G. Sweeten. Special effort is made to have the latest Hits of New York just as soon as they are released.

Good Music, a beautiful hall and a good floor are attracting huge crowds to the dances at the Palace. Old and Young are made welcome.

Dances given every Saturday evening and in the evenings of all holidays with specials in between.
